A Fabulous River Ship

The newest jewel in American Queen Voyages' riverboat fleet, the American Countess, is a stunning boutique-style ship that carries up to 245 guests. Sporting the signature red paddle wheel and white "wedding cake" exterior of a classic Mississippi River steamboat, the interior has a contemporary upscale look. The elegant Grand Dining Room has floor to ceiling windows offering panoramic views of the shoreline. Passengers can grab a coffee or snack at Perks, try out the equipment in the exercise room, or catch a musical performance or a guest speaker's presentation in the show lounge.

A Historic Itinerary

FEBRUARY 24-25 – Pre-Cruise in New Orleans. The vibe is unique; the cuisine is iconic. Explore the famous French Quarter or visit the stunning Garden District. Morning lessons with Larry, Dine-Around and more!

FEBRUARY 26 – Group transfer to the American Countess.

FEBRUARY 27 - River Cruising

FEBRUARY 28 - St. Francisville. St. Francisville today is a testament to the lifestyle of a bygone era, with its cache of charming pre-war homes and striking architecture.

MARCH 1 – Natchez. This city is known for its elegance, hospitality, and impressive preservation of historic homes—found on every street corner. After the Civil War, Natchez became one of the state's leading industrial centers led by the production of wood pulp, lumber, petroleum, and natural gas. Tourism—including casino gambling—has also made the city a popular destination.

MARCH 2 – Vicksburg. As a major battle site during the Civil War, this Southern town carries a history unlike any other.

MARCH 3 – River Cruising

MARCH 4-6 – Memphis - Pre-Cruise hotel stay for Second Week guests. Visit this bustling music mecca, home to the likes of Elvis Presley, Johnny Cash, Sun Studio, and the wondrous sounds of Beale Street.

MARCH 7 – River Cruising

MARCH 8 – Natchez

MARCH 9 – Vicksburg

MARCH 10 - Greenville is a wellspring of music, literature, adventure, imagination, and history. Fertile alluvial soil, moderate annual climate, the blues, and some of the friendliest folk in the South are just some of the attributes of Greenville, Mississippi, the queen of the delta. This city has inspired greatness from Native Americans to cotton barons, Pulitzer-Prize winners, Civil Rights leaders, musicians, poets, and inventors. You can read more about the native authors and their history at the Greenville Writer's Exhibit at the William Alexander Percy Library.

MARCH 11 – River Cruising

MARCH 12 - Memphis
