Larry Cohen is ranked in the Top 10 Living Most Influential Bridge Personalities. In 2011 he was named ACBL Honorary Member of the Year. He has been dedicated to the game since earning his Life Master rating at 17!

Larry finds teaching and writing just as important as competing. He lectures worldwide and his illuminating seminars cover a wide variety of topics—bidding, declaring play, and defense—and include practice hands based on each day's lesson. Larry is the only bridge teacher using the VuGraph presentation screen in his lectures.
